CODE OF THE UNITED STATES

A CODE -

To deliver justice to all persons, no matter what race, creed, or gender; to establish a structure for justice in the United States of America; to deliver justice fairly, while protecting constitutional rights; to have a system in which a people can find their passion and set their dreams; to have a system that we, the people of the United States of America, feel treats everyone with respect and Dignity.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
IN CONGRESS ASSEMBLED

TITLE I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

CHAPTER I. RULES OF CONSTRUCTION

❑ 1 US CODE § 101 - WORDS DENOTING NUMBER, GENDER, AND SO FORTH

In determining the meaning of any Act of Congress, unless the context indicates otherwise—

- words importing the singular include and apply to several persons, parties, or things;
- words importing the plural include the singular;
- words importing the masculine gender include the feminine as well;
- words used in the present tense include the future as well as the present;
- the words "insane" and "insane person" shall include every idiot, insane person, and person non compos mentis;
- the words "person" and "whoever" include corporations, companies, associations, firms, partnerships, societies, as well as individuals;
- "officer" includes any person authorized by law to perform the duties of the office;
- "signature" or "subscription" includes a mark when the person making the same intended it as such;
- "oath" includes affirmation, and "sworn" includes affirmed;

CHAPTER II. ACTS AND RESOLUTIONS; FORMALITIES OF ENACTMENT; REPEALS; SEALING OF INSTRUMENTS

❑ 1 US CODE § 201 - ENACTING CLAUSE

The enacting clause of all Acts of Congress shall be in the following form: "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled."

❑ 1 US CODE § 202 - RESOLVING CLAUSE

No enacting or resolving words shall be used in any section of an Act or resolution of Congress except in the first or last.

❑ 1 US CODE § 203a - AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION

Whenever official notice is received at the Archivist of the United States that any amendment proposed to the Constitution of the United States has been adopted, according to the provisions of the Constitution, that he shall forthwith cause the amendment to be published in the archives.

❑ 1 US CODE § 203b - ARCHIVING LAWS AND BILLS

Congressional leaders have the responsibility of making sure that all bills, nominations, and resolutions are recorded in their respective channels in the archive. The President has the obligation to record laws that he has signed or vetoed in their respective channels.

❑ 1 US CODE § 204 - REPEAL OF EXISTING ACT

Whenever an Act is repealed, which repealed a former Act, such former Act shall not be revived, unless it shall be expressly so provided.

❑ 1 US CODE § 205 - REPEAL OF STATUTES AS AFFECTING EXISTING LIABILITIES

The repeal of any statute shall not have the effect to release or extinguish any penalty, forfeiture, or liability incurred under such statute, unless the repealing Act shall so expressly provide, and such statute shall be treated as still remaining in force for the purpose of sustaining any proper action or prosecution for the enforcement of such penalty, forfeiture, or liability. The expiration of a temporary statute shall not have the effect to release or extinguish any penalty, forfeiture, or liability incurred under such statute, unless the temporary statute shall so expressly provide, and such statute shall be treated as still remaining in force for the purpose of sustaining any proper action or prosecution for the enforcement of such penalty, forfeiture, or liability.

❑ 1 US CODE § 206 - UNITED STATES TREATIES AND OTHER INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS; CONTENTS; ADMISSIBILITY IN EVIDENCE

The Secretary of State shall keep track of the said United States Treaties and Other International agreements, which shall be legal evidence in the courts of the United States.

❑ 1 US CODE § 207 - UNITED STATES INTERNATIONAL AGREEMENTS; TRANSMISSION TO CONGRESS

An international agreement may not be signed or otherwise concluded on behalf of the United States without prior consultation with the Secretary of State. Such consultation may encompass a class of agreements rather than a particular agreement.

The President shall, through the Secretary of State, promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out this section.

TITLE II. THE CONGRESS

CHAPTER I. ORGANIZATION OF CONGRESS

❑ 2 US CODE § 101 - ORGANIZATION OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The United States House of Representatives is comprised of the Speaker of the House, Speaker Pro-Tempore, Majority Leader, and Minority Leader. The House has the ability to determine the duties that each of these positions shall execute by adopting a set of standing rules. The leader of the House of Representatives shall be the Speaker of the House. The Speaker of the House shall be a member of the House of Representatives.

If a vacancy occurs in the office of Majority Leader or Minority Leader (and has not been filled), the chairman of the caucus or conference of the party involved for the current Congress may call a meeting to elect such. The word “Meeting” as used in this code refers to a meeting in-game on ROBLOX or Discord text chat.

❑ 2 US CODE § 102 - ORGANIZATION OF THE UNITED STATES SENATE

The United States Senate is comprised of the President of the Senate, President Pro-Tempore, Majority Leader, and Minority Leader. The Senate has the ability to determine the duties that each of these positions shall execute by adopting a set of standing rules. The President of the Senate shall be the Vice President.

If a vacancy occurs in the office of Majority Leader or Minority Leader (and has not been filled), a member of said caucuses may motion to fill said position. The word “Meeting” as used in this code refers to a meeting in-game on ROBLOX or Discord text chat.

CHAPTER II. CONGRESSIONAL AND COMMITTEE PROCEDURE; INVESTIGATIONS

❑ 2 US CODE § 201 - PRIVATE CLAIMS PENDING BEFORE CONGRESS; TAKING OF TESTIMONY

Any committee of either House of Congress before which any private claim against the United States may at any time be pending, being first thereto authorized by the House appointing them, may order testimony to be taken, and evidence to be examined, and copies thereof proved. Such master in chancery, upon receiving a copy of the order of such committee, signed by its chairman, setting forth the time and place when and where such examination is to be had, the questions to be investigated, and, so far as may be known to the committee, the names of the witnesses to be examined on the part of the United States, and the general nature of the evidence. Then the Chairman shall proceed to give to such private parties reasonable notice of the time and place of such examination.

❑ 2 US CODE § 202 - OATHS TO WITNESSES

The President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, or a chairman of any joint committee established by a joint or concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress, or of a committee of the whole, or of any committee of either House of Congress, is empowered to administer oaths to witnesses in any case under their examination.

❑ 2 US CODE § 203 - REFUSAL OF WITNESS TO TESTIFY OR PRODUCE PAPERS

Every person who having been summoned as a witness by the authority of either House of Congress to give testimony or to produce evidence upon any matter under inquiry before either House, or any joint committee established by a joint or concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress, or any committee of either House of Congress, willfully makes default, or who, having appeared, refuses to answer any question pertinent to the question under inquiry, shall be deemed guilty of Obstruction of Justice or Obstruction of a Congressional Investigation in all matters relating to a congressional investigation, or shall be deemed guilty of Perjury for all non-investigative matters.

❑ 2 US CODE § 204 - CLAIMS OF EXECUTIVE PRIVILEGE

President's enjoy a constitutionally protected executive privilege, but that privilege is not absolute. Should privilege be used to prevent full factual disclosure in the face of potential illegal acts, either House of Congress may challenge it in the court of law.

❑ 2 US CODE § 205 - PRIVILEGE OF WITNESSES

No witness is privileged to refuse to testify to any fact, or to produce any paper, respecting which he shall be examined by either House of Congress, or by any joint committee established by a joint or concurrent resolution of the two Houses of Congress, or by any committee of either House, upon the ground that his testimony to such fact or his production of such paper may tend to disgrace him or otherwise render him infamous.

TITLE III. THE PRESIDENT

CHAPTER I. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS AND VACANCIES

❑ 3 US CODE § 101 - VACANCY IN OFFICES OF BOTH PRESIDENT AND VICE PRESIDENT; OFFICERS ELIGIBLE TO ACT

Congress shall be required to form legislation to create a line of succession for the event that the offices of both President of the United States and Vice President of the United States are vacant.

CHAPTER II. DELEGATION OF FUNCTIONS

❑ 3 US CODE § 201 - GENERAL AUTHORIZATION TO DELEGATE FUNCTIONS

The President of the United States is authorized to designate and empower the head of any department or agency in the executive branch, or any official thereof who is required to be appointed by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to perform without approval, ratification, or other action by the President

(1) any function which is vested in the President by law, or

(2) any function which such officer is required or authorized by law to perform only with or subject to the approval, ratification, or other action of the President:

Provided, That nothing contained herein shall relieve the President of his responsibility in office for the acts of any such head or other official designated by him to perform such functions. Such designation and authorization shall be in writing, shall be subject to such terms, conditions, and limitations as the President may deem advisable, and shall be revocable at any time by the President in whole or in part.

❑ 3 US CODE § 202 - SCOPE OF DELEGATION OF FUNCTIONS

The authority conferred by this chapter shall apply to any function vested in the President by law if such law does not affirmatively prohibit delegation of the performance of such function as herein provided for, or specifically designate the officer or officers to whom it may be delegated. This chapter shall not be deemed to limit or derogate from any existing or inherent right of the President to delegate the performance of functions vested in him by law, and nothing herein shall be deemed to require express authorization in any case in which such an official would be presumed in law to have acted by authority or direction of the President.

TITLE IV. FLAG AND SEAL, SEAT OF GOVERNMENT

CHAPTER I. FLAG

❑ 4 US CODE § 101 - PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE TO THE FLAG

The Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag: "I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.", should be rendered by standing at attention facing the flag. Persons in uniform should remain silent, face the flag, and render the military salute, if able to do so. Members of the Armed Forces not in uniform and veterans may render the military salute in the manner provided for persons in uniform.

CHAPTER II. THE SEAL

❑ 4 US CODE § 201 - SEAL OF THE UNITED STATES

The seal heretofore used by the United States in Congress assembled is declared to be the seal of the United States.

TITLE V. GOVERNMENT ORGANIZATION AND EMPLOYEES

CHAPTER I. ORGANIZATION

❑ 5 US CODE § 101 - EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENTS

The Executive departments are:

- The Department of State
- The Department of Justice
- The Department of Defense
- The Department of Homeland Security

❑ 5 US CODE § 102 - MILITARY DEPARTMENTS

The Military Departments are:

- United States Army
- United States Marine Corps

No Military Department shall be authorized except with the approval of Congress via legislation and the signature of the President. The President, with the approval of Congress, may open or close branches of the military.

CHAPTER II. POWERS

❑ 5 US CODE § 201 - DEPARTMENTAL REGULATIONS

The head of an Executive department or military department may prescribe regulations for the government of his department, the conduct of its employees, the distribution and performance of its business, and the custody, use, and preservation of its records, papers, and property. This section does not authorize withholding information from the public or limiting the availability of records to the public.

❑ 5 US CODE § 202 - OATHS TO WITNESSES

An employee of an Executive department participating in an investigation may administer an oath to a witness intending to testify or depose in the course of said investigation.

❑ 5 US CODE § 203 - SUBPOENAS

a) The head of an Executive department or military department or bureau thereof in which a claim against the United States is pending may apply to a judge to issue a subpoena for a witness within the jurisdiction of the court to appear at a time and place stated in the subpoena before an individual authorized to take depositions to be used in the courts of the United States, to give full and true answers to such written interrogatories and cross-interrogatories as may be submitted with the application, or to be orally examined and cross-examined on the subject of the claim.

b) If a witness, after being served with a subpoena, neglects or refuses to appear, or, appearing, refuses to testify, the judge of the district in which the subpoena issued may proceed, on proper process, to enforce obedience to the subpoena, or to punish for disobedience, in the same manner as a court of the United States may in case of process of subpoena ad testificandum issued by the court.

❑ 5 US CODE § 203 - SYSTEMATIC AGENCY REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

- a) For the purpose of this section, “agency” means an Executive agency, but does not include—
- (1) a Government controlled corporation;
 - (2) the Central Intelligence Agency; or
 - (3) the National Security Agency, Department of Defense.
- b) Under regulations prescribed and administered by the President, each agency shall review systematically the operations of each of its activities, functions, or organization units, on a continuing basis.
- c) The purpose of the reviews includes—
- (1) determining the degree of efficiency in the operation of the agency’s activities, functions, or organization units;
 - (2) identifying the units that are outstanding in those respects; and
 - (3) identifying the employees whose personal efforts have caused their units to be outstanding in efficiency and economy of operations.

CHAPTER III. ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

SUBCHAPTER I. - GENERAL PROVISIONS

❑ 5 US CODE § 301 - ADMINISTRATIVE PRACTICE; RESERVES

Membership in a reserve component of the armed forces does not prevent an individual from practicing his civilian profession or occupation before, or in connection with, an agency of the United States.

SUBCHAPTER II. - ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

❑ 5 US CODE § 302 - DEFINITIONS

For the purpose of this subchapter—

(1) “agency” means each authority of the Government of the United States, whether or not it is within or subject to review by another agency, but does not include—

(A) the Congress;

(B) the courts of the United States;

(C) the governments of the territories or possessions of the United States;

(D) the government of the District of Columbia;

(E) agencies composed of representatives of the parties or of representatives of organizations of the parties to the disputes determined by them;

(F) courts martial and military commissions;

(G) military authority exercised in the field in time of war or in occupied territory; or

(2) “person” includes an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or public or private organization other than an agency;

(3) “party” includes a person or agency named or admitted as a party, or properly seeking and entitled as of right to be admitted as a party, in an agency proceeding, and a person or agency admitted by an agency as a party for limited purposes;

(4) “rule” means the whole or a part of an agency statement of general or particular applicability and future effect designed to implement, interpret, or prescribe law or policy or describing the organization, procedure, or practice requirements of an agency and includes the approval or prescription for the future of rates, wages, corporate or financial structures or reorganizations thereof, prices, facilities, appliances, services or allowances therefor or of valuations, costs, or accounting, or practices bearing on any of the foregoing;

(5) “rule making” means agency process for formulating, amending, or repealing a rule;

(6) “order” means the whole or a part of a final disposition, whether affirmative, negative, injunctive, or declaratory in form, of an agency in a matter other than rule making but including licensing;

- (7) “adjudication” means agency process for the formulation of an order;
- (8) “license” includes the whole or a part of an agency permit, certificate, approval, registration, charter, membership, statutory exemption or other form of permission;
- (9) “licensing” includes agency process respecting the grant, renewal, denial, revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, limitation, amendment, modification, or conditioning of a license;
- (10) “sanction” includes the whole or a part of an agency—
 - (A) prohibition, requirement, limitation, or other condition affecting the freedom of a person;
 - (B) withholding of relief;
 - (C) imposition of penalty
 - (D) destruction, taking, seizure, or withholding of property;
 - (E) assessment of damages, reimbursement, restitution, compensation, costs, charges, or fees;
 - (F) requirement, revocation, or suspension of a license; or
 - (G) taking other compulsory or restrictive action;
- (11) “relief” includes the whole or a part of an agency—
 - (A) grant of money, assistance, license, authority, exemption, exception, privilege, or remedy;
 - (B) recognition of a claim, right, immunity, privilege, exemption, or exception; or
 - (C) taking of other action on the application or petition of, and beneficial to, a person;
- (12) “agency proceeding” means an agency process as defined by paragraphs (5), (7), and (9) of this section;
- (13) “agency action” includes the whole or a part of an agency rule, order, license, sanction, relief, or the equivalent or denial thereof, or failure to act; and
- (14) “ex parte communication” means an oral or written communication not on the public record with respect to which reasonable prior notice to all parties is not given, but it shall not include requests for status reports on any matter or proceeding covered by this subchapter.

❑ 5 US CODE § 303 - ADJUDICATIONS

No individual shall, while serving as Secretary, Deputy Secretary, Director or Deputy Director, serve in any other office or position in the Government of the United States except as otherwise provided by law or at the direction of the President.

SUBCHAPTER III. - AGENCY RULEMAKING

❑ 5 US CODE § 304 - AUTHORITY

The Directorate or Secretary of an executive agency or department has the authority to establish rules and regulations.

The President of the United States may edit the rules or regulations through amendment to the rule or through executive order.

❑ 5 US CODE § 305 - JUDICIAL REVIEW

Any agency or executive regulation, rule, or policy shall be subject to judicial review thereof in accordance with the constitution.

SUBCHAPTER IV. - JUDICIAL REVIEW

❑ 5 US CODE § 306 - APPLICATION; DEFINITIONS

- (a) This chapter applies, according to the provisions thereof, except to the extent that—
 - (1) statutes preclude judicial review; or
 - (2) agency action is committed to agency discretion by law.
- (b) For the purpose of this chapter—
 - (1) “agency” means each authority of the Government of the United States, whether or not it is within or subject to review by another agency, but does not include—
 - (A) the Congress;
 - (B) the courts of the United States;
 - (C) the governments of the territories or possessions of the United States;
 - (D) the government of the District of Columbia;
 - (E) agencies composed of representatives of the parties or of representatives of organizations of the parties to the disputes determined by them;
 - (F) courts martial and military commissions;
 - (G) military authority exercised in the field in time of war or in occupied territory;

❑ 5 US CODE § 307 - RIGHT OF REVIEW

A person suffering legal wrong because of agency action, or adversely affected or aggrieved by agency action within the meaning of a relevant statute, is entitled to judicial review thereof. An action in a court of the United States seeking relief and stating a claim that an agency or an officer or employee thereof acted or failed to act in an official capacity or under color of legal authority shall not be dismissed nor relief therein be denied on the ground that it is against the United States or that the United States is an indispensable party. The United States may be named as a defendant in any such action, and a judgment or decree may be entered against the United States: Provided, That any mandatory or injunctive decree shall specify the Federal officer or officers (by name or by title), and their successors in office, personally responsible for compliance.

Nothing herein

- (1) affects other limitations on judicial review or the power or duty of the court to dismiss any action or deny relief on any other appropriate legal or equitable ground; or
- (2) confers authority to grant relief if any other statute that grants consent to suit expressly or impliedly forbids the relief which is sought.

❑ 5 US CODE § 308 - FORM AND VENUE FOR PROCEEDING

The form of proceeding for judicial review is the special statutory review proceeding relevant to the subject matter in a court specified by statute or, in the absence or inadequacy thereof, any applicable form of legal action, including actions for declaratory judgments or writs of prohibitory or mandatory injunction or habeas corpus, in a court of competent jurisdiction. If no special statutory review proceeding is applicable, the action for judicial review may be brought against the United States, the agency by its official title, or the appropriate officer. Except to the extent that prior, adequate, and exclusive opportunity for judicial review is provided by law, agency action is subject to judicial review in civil or criminal proceedings for judicial enforcement.

❑ 5 US CODE § 309 - ACTIONS REVIEWABLE

Agency action made reviewable by statute and final agency action for which there is no other adequate remedy in a court are subject to judicial review. A preliminary, procedural, or intermediate agency action or ruling not directly reviewable is subject to review on the review of the final agency action. Except as otherwise expressly required by statute, agency action otherwise final is final for the purposes of this section whether or not there has been presented or determined an application for a declaratory order, for any form of reconsideration, or, unless the agency otherwise requires by rule and provides that the action meanwhile is inoperative, for an appeal to superior agency authority.

❑ 5 US CODE § 310 - RELIEF PENDING REVIEW

When an agency finds that justice so requires, it may postpone the effective date of action taken by it, pending judicial review. On such conditions as may be required and to the extent necessary to prevent irreparable harm, the reviewing court, including the court to which a case may be taken on appeal from or on application for certiorari or other writ to a reviewing court, may issue all necessary and appropriate process to postpone the effective date of an agency action or to preserve status or rights pending conclusion of the review proceedings.

❑ 5 US CODE § 311 - SCOPE OF REVIEW

To the extent necessary to decision and when presented, the reviewing court shall decide all relevant questions of law, interpret constitutional and statutory provisions, and determine the meaning or applicability of the terms of an agency action. The reviewing court shall—

- (1) compel agency action unlawfully withheld or unreasonably delayed; and
- (2) hold unlawful and set aside agency action, findings, and conclusions found to be—
 - (A) arbitrary, capricious, an abuse of discretion, or otherwise not in accordance with law;
 - (B) contrary to constitutional right, power, privilege, or immunity;
 - (C) in excess of statutory jurisdiction, authority, or limitations, or short of statutory right;
 - (D) without observance of procedure required by law;
 - (E) unwarranted by the facts to the extent that the facts are subject to trial de novo by the reviewing court.

SUBCHAPTER V. - CONGRESSIONAL REVIEW OF AGENCY RULEMAKING

❑ 5 US CODE § 312- CONGRESSIONAL REVIEW

If the House or Senate Oversight or Ethics committee; or a special committee, finds that an executive agency or department rule violates the law, or the constitution, they have the power to repeal that rule.

SUBCHAPTER VI. - EXECUTIVE REORGANIZATION

❑ 5 US CODE § 316 - PURPOSE

- (a) The Congress declares that it is the policy of the United States—
 - (1) to promote the better execution of the laws, the more effective management of the executive branch and its agencies and functions, and the expeditious administration of the public business;
 - (2) to increase the efficiency of the operations of the Government to the fullest extent practicable;

- (3) to group, coordinate, and consolidate agencies and functions of the Government, as nearly as may be, according to major purposes;
- (4) to eliminate overlapping and duplication of effort.
- (b) It is the intent of Congress that the President should provide appropriate means for broad citizen advice and participation in restructuring and reorganizing the executive branch.
- (c) The President shall from time to time examine the organization of all agencies and shall determine what changes in such organization are necessary to carry out any policy set forth in subsection (a) of this section.

❑ 5 US CODE § 304 - DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

The President, or the head of department or agency, may establish roles and positions within the agency, as long as they are in accordance with the law and constitution of the US.

TITLE VI. DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

CHAPTER I. DEFINITIONS

CHAPTER II. DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

❑ 6 US CODE § 402 - EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

(a) The Department of Defense is an executive department of the United States.

(b) The Department is composed of the following:

(1) The Office of the Secretary of Defense.

(2) The Joint Chiefs of Staff.

(3) The Joint Staff.

(4) The Defense Agencies.

(5) Department of Defense Field Activities.

(6) The United States Army.

(7) The United States Marine Corps.

(8) The unified and specified combatant commands.

(9) Such other offices, agencies, activities, and commands as may be established or designated by law or by the President.

(10) All offices, agencies, activities, and commands under the control or supervision of any element named in paragraphs (1) through (9).

(c) If the President establishes or designates an office, agency, activity, or command in the Department of Defense of a kind other than those described in paragraphs (1) through (8) of subsection (b), the President shall notify Congress not later than 10 days thereafter.

❑ 6 US CODE § 403 - SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

(a) There is a Secretary of Defense, who is the head of the Department of Defense, appointed from civilian life by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.

(b) The Secretary is the principal assistant to the President in all matters relating to the Department of Defense. Subject to the direction of the President and to this title he has authority, direction, and control over the Department of Defense.

(c) When a vacancy occurs in an office within the Department of Defense and the office is to be filled by a person appointed from civilian life by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, the Secretary of Defense shall inform the President of the qualifications needed by a person serving in that office to carry out effectively the duties and responsibilities of that office.

(e) The Secretary of Defense, upon request from either House of Congress or subsequent committee of jurisdiction, shall submit a report on the workings of the Department of Defense at his pleasure twice a month.

CHAPTER III. GENERAL POWERS AND FUNCTIONS

❑ 6 US CODE § 404 - REGULATIONS

The President may prescribe regulations to carry out his functions, powers, and duties under this title.

CHAPTER IV. OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

❑ 6 US CODE § 405 - OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

(a) There is in the Department of Defense an Office of the Secretary of Defense. The function of the Office is to assist the Secretary of Defense in carrying out the Secretary's duties and responsibilities and to carry out such other duties as may be prescribed by law.

(b) The Office of the Secretary of Defense is composed of the following:

(1) The Deputy Secretary of Defense.

The term “judge of the United States” includes judges of district courts or any court created by Act of Congress, the judges of which are entitled to hold office during good behavior.

The term “justice of the United States” includes the Chief Justice of the United States and the associate justices of the Supreme Court.

The terms “district” and “judicial district” means the districts enumerated in Chapter 2 of this title.

❑ 8 US CODE § 109 - PRACTICE OF LAW BY JUSTICES AND JUDGES

Any justice or judge appointed under the authority of the United States who engages in the practice of law is guilty of a high misdemeanor.

❑ 8 US CODE § 110 - DISQUALIFICATION OF JUSTICE OR JUDGE

(a) Any justice or judge of the United States shall disqualify themselves in any proceeding in which their impartiality might reasonably be questioned.

(b) He or she shall also disqualify themselves in the following circumstances:

(1) Where they have personal bias or prejudice concerning a party, or personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;

(2) Where in private practice he or she served as lawyer in the matter in controversy, or a lawyer with whom he or she previously practiced law served during such association as a lawyer concerning the matter, or the judge or such lawyer has been a material witness concerning it;

(3) Where he or she has served in governmental employment and in such capacity participated as counsel, adviser or material witness concerning the proceeding or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of the particular case in controversy;

(c) No justice or judge shall accept from the parties to the proceeding a waiver of any ground for disqualification enumerated in subsection (b). Where the ground for disqualification arises only under subsection (a), waiver may be accepted provided it is preceded by a full disclosure on the record of the basis for disqualification.

❑ 8 US CODE § 111 - ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Each justice or judge of the United States may administer oaths and affirmations and take acknowledgments.

❑ 8 US CODE § 112 - OATHS OF JUSTICES AND JUDGES

Each justice or judge of the United States shall take the following oath or affirmation before performing the duties of his office: "I, __ __, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will administer justice without respect to persons, and do equal right to the poor and to the rich, and that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent upon me as __ under the Constitution and laws of the United States. So help me God"

CHAPTER VI. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE; THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

❑ 8 US CODE § 113 - EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT

The Department of Justice is an executive department of the United States at the seat of Government.

❑ 8 US CODE § 114 - SEAL

The Attorney General shall have a seal for the Department of Justice. The design of the seal is subject to the approval of the Founder.

❑ 8 US CODE § 115 - ATTORNEY GENERAL

The President shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an Attorney General of the United States. The Attorney General is the head of the Department of Justice.

❑ 8 US CODE § 116 - DEPUTY ATTORNEY GENERAL

The President may appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a Deputy Attorney General.

❑ 8 US CODE § 117 - ASSOCIATE ATTORNEY GENERAL

The President may appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an Associate Attorney General.

❑ 8 US CODE § 118 - SOLICITOR GENERAL

The President shall appoint in the Department of Justice, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a Solicitor General, learned in the law, to assist the Attorney General in the performance of his duties.

❑ 8 US CODE § 119 - VACANCIES

(a) In case of a vacancy in the office of Attorney General, or of his or her absence or disability, the Deputy Attorney General may exercise all the duties of that office, and the Deputy Attorney General is the first assistant to the Attorney General.

(b) When by reason of absence, disability, or vacancy in office, neither the Attorney General nor the Deputy Attorney General is available to exercise the duties of the office of Attorney General, the Associate Attorney General shall act as Attorney General. The Attorney General may designate the Solicitor General in further order of succession, to act as Attorney General.

❑ 8 US CODE § 120 - FUNCTIONS OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

All functions of other officers of the Department of Justice and all functions of agencies and employees of the Department of Justice are vested in the Attorney General.

❑ 8 US CODE § 121 - DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

The Attorney General may from time to time make such provisions as he or she considers appropriate authorizing the performance by any other officer, employee, or agency of the Department of Justice of any function of the Attorney General.

❑ 8 US CODE § 122 - ATTORNEY GENERAL TO ADVISE THE PRESIDENT

The Attorney General shall give his advice and opinion on questions of law when required by the President.

❑ 8 US CODE § 123 - GENERAL ADVICE

The head of an executive department may require the opinion of the Attorney General on questions of law arising in the administration of his department. The same goes with the military.

❑ 8 US CODE § 124 - INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES IN PENDING SUITS

The Solicitor General, or any officer of the Department of Justice, may be sent by the Attorney General to any high court or district proceeding in the United States to attend to the interests of the United States in a suit pending in a court of the United States or to attend to any other interest of the United States.

❑ 8 US CODE § 125 - REPORT OF ATTORNEY GENERAL

The Attorney General, upon request from either House of Congress or subsequent committee of jurisdiction, shall submit a report on the workings of the Department of Justice at his pleasure twice a month.

CHAPTER VII. FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

❑ 8 US CODE § 126 - FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is in the Department of Justice.

❑ 8 US CODE § 127 - DIRECTOR OF THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

The Attorney General may appoint a Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation is the head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

❑ 8 US CODE § 128 - INVESTIGATIVE AND OTHER OFFICIALS; APPOINTMENT

The Attorney General may appoint officials—

- (1)to detect and prosecute crimes against the United States;
- (2)to assist in the protection of the person of the President; and
- (3)to assist in the protection of the person of the Attorney General.

(4) to conduct such other investigations regarding official matters under the control of the Department of Justice and the Department of State as may be directed by the Attorney General.

This section does not limit the authority of departments and agencies to investigate crimes against the United States when investigative jurisdiction has been assigned by law to such departments and agencies.

❑ 8 US CODE § 129 - INVESTIGATION OF CRIMES INVOLVING GOVERNMENT OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES; LIMITATIONS

(a) The Attorney General and the Federal Bureau of Investigation may investigate any violation of Federal criminal law involving Government officers and employees—

- (1) notwithstanding any other provision of law; and
- (2) without limiting the authority to investigate any matter which is conferred on them or on a department or agency of the Government.

(b) Any information, allegation, matter, or complaint witnessed, discovered, or received in a department or agency of the executive branch of the Government relating to violations of Federal criminal law involving Government officers and employees shall be expeditiously reported to the Attorney General by the head of the department or agency, or the witness, discoverer, or recipient, as appropriate, unless—

- (1) the responsibility to perform an investigation with respect thereto is specifically assigned otherwise by another provision of law; or
- (2) as to any department or agency of the Government, the Attorney General directs otherwise with respect to a specified class of information, allegation, or complaint.

(c) This section does not limit—

- (1) the authority of the military departments to investigate persons or offenses over which the armed forces have jurisdiction under the Uniform Code of Military Justice

CHAPTER VIII. UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS

❑ 8 US CODE § 130 - UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS

(a) The President shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a United States attorney for each judicial district.

(b) Each United States attorney shall be appointed for the duration of the President's term. On the expiration of his or her term, a United States attorney shall continue to perform the duties of his or her office until his or her successor is appointed and qualifies.

(c) Each United States attorney is subject to removal by the President.

❏ 8 US CODE § 131 - ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEYS

- (a) The Attorney General may appoint one or more assistant United States attorneys in any district when the public interest so requires.
- (b) Each assistant United States attorney is subject to removal by the Attorney General.

❏ 8 US CODE § 132 - OATH OF OFFICE

Each United States attorney, assistant United States attorney, and attorney appointed under this section, before taking office, shall take an oath to execute faithfully his or her duties.

❏ 8 US CODE § 133 - VACANCIES

- (a) The Attorney General shall not appoint as United States attorney a person to whose appointment by the President to that office the Senate refused to give advice and consent.
- (b) If an appointment expires under this section, the President for such district may appoint a United States attorney to serve until the vacancy is filled.

❏ 8 US CODE § 134 - DUTIES

Except as otherwise provided by law, each United States attorney, within said district, shall—

- (1) prosecute for all offenses against the United States;
- (2) prosecute or defend, for the Government, all civil actions, suits or proceedings in which the United States is concerned;
- (3) make such reports as the Attorney General may direct.

CHAPTER IX. UNITED STATES MARSHALS SERVICE

❏ 8 US CODE § 135 - UNITED STATES MARSHALS SERVICE

- (a) There is hereby established a United States Marshals Service as a bureau under the United States Judicial Branch, under supervision from the Chief Justice. There shall be at the head of the United States Marshals Service a Director who shall be appointed by the Chief Justice, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.
- (b) The Director of the United States Marshals Service shall, in addition to the powers and duties set forth in this chapter, exercise such other functions as may be delegated by the Chief Justice, including the work of a federal officer.

(c) The Director shall supervise and direct the United States Marshals Service in the performance of its duties.

❑ 8 US CODE § 136 - OATH OF OFFICE

The Director and each United States marshal and law enforcement officer of the Service, before taking office, shall take an oath or affirmation to faithfully execute the duties of that office.

❑ 8 US CODE § 137 - POWERS AND DUTIES

(a) It is the primary role and mission of the United States Marshals Service to provide for the security and to obey, execute, and enforce all orders of the United States Supreme Court, the United States District Courts, and anything else as provided by code.

(b) Except as otherwise provided by law or Rule of Procedure, the United States Marshals Service shall execute all lawful writs, process, and orders issued under the authority of the United States, and shall command all necessary assistance to execute its duties.

(c) Each United States marshal, deputy marshal, and any other official of the Service as may be designated by the Director may carry firearms and make arrests without warrant for any offense against the United States committed in his or her presence, or for any felony cognizable under the laws of the United States if he or she has reasonable grounds to believe that the person to be arrested has committed or is committing such felony.

(e)

(1) The United States Marshals Service is authorized to—

(a) provide for the personal protection of Federal jurists, court officers, witnesses, and other threatened persons in the interests of justice where criminal intimidation impedes on the functioning of the judicial process or any other official proceeding;

(b) investigate such fugitive matters, both within and outside the United States, as directed by the Chief Justice;

(c) assist Federal law enforcement agencies, upon action as needed in matters relating to being a Federal officer.

(d) make traffic stops as needed if imminent threat to public is identified

CHAPTER X. PARTICULAR PROCEEDINGS; HABEAS CORPUS

❑ 8 US CODE § 138 - POWER TO GRANT WRIT

(a) Writs of habeas corpus may be granted by the Supreme Court, any justice thereof, and the district courts within their respective jurisdiction.

(b) The Supreme Court, any justice thereof, and any circuit judge may decline to entertain an application for a writ of habeas corpus and may transfer the application for hearing and determination to the district court having jurisdiction to entertain it.

(c) The writ of habeas corpus shall not extend to a prisoner unless—

(1) He or she is in custody under or by color of the authority of the United States or is committed for trial before some court thereof; or

(2) He or she is in custody for an act done or omitted in pursuance of an Act of Congress, or an order, process, judgment or decree of a court or judge of the United States; or order, process, judgment or decree of a court or judge of the United States; or

(3) He or she is in custody in violation of the Constitution or laws or treaties of the United States; or

(4) It is necessary to bring him or her into court to testify or for trial.

(e)

No court, justice, or judge shall have jurisdiction to hear or consider an application for a writ of habeas corpus filed by or on behalf of an alien detained by the United States who has been determined by the United States to have been properly detained as an enemy combatant or is awaiting such determination.

❑ 8 US CODE § 139 - APPLICATION

Application for a writ of habeas corpus shall be in writing signed and verified by the person for whose relief it is intended or by someone acting in his behalf.

It shall allege the facts concerning the applicant's commitment or detention, the name of the person who has custody over him and by virtue of what claim or authority, if known.

It may be amended or supplemented as provided in the rules of procedure applicable to civil actions.

If addressed to the Supreme Court, a justice thereof or a circuit judge it shall state the reasons for not making application to the district court of the district in which the applicant is held.

❑ 8 US CODE § 140 - ISSUANCE OF WRIT; RETURN; HEARING; DECISION

A court, justice or judge entertaining an application for a writ of habeas corpus shall forthwith award the writ or issue an order directing the respondent to show cause why the writ should not be granted, unless it appears from the application that the applicant or person detained is not entitled thereto.

The writ, or order to show cause shall be directed to the person having custody of the person detained. It shall be returned within twelve hours unless for good cause additional time, not exceeding twenty-four hours, is allowed.

The person to whom the writ or order is directed shall make a return certifying the true cause of the detention.

When the writ or order is returned a day shall be set for hearing, not more than five hours after the return unless for good cause additional time is allowed.

Unless the application for the writ and the return present only issues of law the person to whom the writ is directed shall be required to produce at the hearing the body of the person detained.

The applicant or the person detained may, under oath, deny any of the facts set forth in the return or allege any other material facts.

The return and all suggestions made against it may be amended, by leave of court, before or after being filed.

The court shall summarily hear and determine the facts, and dispose of the matter as law and justice require.

❑ 8 US CODE § 141 - FINALITY OF DETERMINATION

(a) No district judge shall be required to entertain an application for a writ of habeas corpus to inquire into the detention of a person pursuant to a judgment of a court of the United States if it appears that the legality of such detention has been determined by a judge or court of the United States on a prior application for a writ of habeas corpus.

(b)

(1) A claim presented in a second or successive habeas corpus application that was presented in a prior application shall be dismissed.

(2) A claim presented in a second or successive habeas corpus application that was not presented in a prior application shall be dismissed unless—

(a) the applicant shows that the claim relies on a new rule of constitutional law, made retroactive to cases on collateral review by the Supreme Court, that was previously unavailable; or

(b)

(i) the factual predicate for the claim could not have been discovered previously through the exercise of due diligence; and

(ii) the facts underlying the claim, if proven and viewed in light of the evidence as a whole, would be sufficient to establish by clear and convincing evidence that, but for constitutional error, no reasonable factfinder would have found the applicant guilty of the underlying offense.

(3) A district court shall dismiss any claim presented in a second or successive application that the court of appeals has authorized to be filed unless the applicant shows that the claim satisfies the requirements of this section.

CHAPTER XI. OATH OF OFFICE

❑ 8 US CODE § 142 - ADMINISTERING THE OATH OF OFFICE

Any official that is able to administer the oath of office to any political office may not administer said oath to anyone who has been prosecuted and convicted of crimes relating to Title VII political coercion, bribery, electoral fraud, and anything relating to crimes of political and non-political officials.

TITLE IX. OFFICIAL COMMUNICATIONS

❑ 9 US CODE § 101 - COMMUNICATION SERVERS

Any official communication server of the United States, owned by the Founders, is hereby known as a privilege of use, and not a right. Every citizen and non-citizen of the United States subjects themselves to the rules written within the main communication server.

Any citizen or non-citizen may be punished at moderator discretion, even if the rule is not explicitly written within the rules.

All citizens and non-citizens agree to abide by Roblox TOS and Discord TOS. Breaking them will constitute severe punishment.

TITLE X. WAR AND NATIONAL DEFENSE

CHAPTER I. WAR POWERS RESOLUTION

❑ 10 US CODE § 101 - PURPOSE AND POLICY

(a) CONGRESSIONAL DECLARATION

It is the purpose of this chapter to fulfill the intent of the framers of the Constitution of the United States and insure that the collective judgment of both the Congress and the President will apply to the introduction of United States Armed Forces into hostilities, or into situations where imminent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated by the circumstances, and to the continued use of such forces in hostilities or in such situations.

(b) CONGRESSIONAL LEGISLATIVE POWER UNDER NECESSARY AND PROPER CLAUSE

Under article I, section 8, of the Constitution, it is specifically provided that the Congress shall have the power to make all laws necessary and proper for carrying into execution, not only its own powers but also all other powers vested by the Constitution in the Government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

(c) PRESIDENTIAL EXECUTIVE POWER AS COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF; LIMITATION

The constitutional powers of the President as Commander-in-Chief to introduce United States Armed Forces into hostilities, or into situations where imminent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated by the circumstances, are exercised only pursuant to (1) a declaration of war, (2) specific statutory authorization, or (3) a national emergency created by attack upon the United States, its territories or possessions, or its armed forces.

❑ 10 US CODE § 102 - CONSULTATION; INITIAL AND REGULAR CONSULTATIONS

The President in every possible instance shall consult with Congress before introducing United States Armed Forces into hostilities or into situations where imminent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated by the circumstances, and after every such introduction shall consult regularly with the Congress until United States Armed Forces are no longer engaged in hostilities or have been removed from such situations.

❑ 10 US CODE § 103 - REPORTING REQUIREMENT

(a) WRITTEN REPORT; TIME OF SUBMISSION; CIRCUMSTANCES NECESSITATING SUBMISSION; INFORMATION REPORTED In the absence of a declaration of war, in any case in which United States Armed Forces are introduced—

- (1) into hostilities or into situations where imminent involvement in hostilities is clearly indicated by the circumstances;
- (2) into the territory of a foreign nation, while equipped for combat, except for deployments which relate solely to replacement or training of such forces; or
- (3) in numbers which substantially enlarge United States Armed Forces equipped for combat already located in a foreign nation;

the President shall submit within 24 hours to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President pro tempore of the Senate a report, in writing, setting forth—

- (a) the circumstances necessitating the introduction of United States Armed Forces;
- (b) the constitutional and legislative authority under which such introduction took place; and
- (c) the estimated scope and duration of the hostilities or involvement.

(b) OTHER INFORMATION REPORTED

The President shall provide such other information as the Congress may request in the fulfillment of its constitutional responsibilities with respect to committing the Nation to war and to the use of United States Armed Forces abroad.

(c) PERIODIC REPORTS; SEMIANNUAL REQUIREMENT

Whenever United States Armed Forces are introduced into hostilities or into any situation described in subsection (a) of this section, the President shall, so long as such armed forces continue to be engaged in such hostilities or situation, report to the Congress periodically on the status of such hostilities or situation as well as on the scope and duration of such hostilities or situation, but in no event shall he report to the Congress less often than once every two weeks.

❏ 10 US CODE § 104 - CONGRESSIONAL ACTION

(a) TRANSMITTAL OF REPORT AND REFERRAL TO CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEES; JOINT REQUEST FOR CONVENING CONGRESS

Each report submitted shall be transmitted to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and to the President pro tempore of the Senate on the same calendar day. Each report so transmitted shall be referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House of Representatives and to the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate for appropriate action. If, when the report is transmitted, the Congress has adjourned sine die or has adjourned for any period in excess of three calendar days, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President pro tempore of the Senate, if they deem it advisable (or if petitioned by at least 30 percent of the membership of their respective Houses) shall jointly request the President to convene Congress in order that it may consider the report and take appropriate action pursuant to this section.

(b) TERMINATION OF USE OF UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES; EXCEPTIONS; EXTENSION PERIOD

Within two calendar days after a report is submitted or is required to be submitted pursuant to this title, whichever is earlier, the President shall terminate any use of United States Armed Forces with respect to which such report was submitted (or required to be submitted), unless the Congress (1) has declared war or has enacted a specific authorization for such use of United States Armed Forces, (2) has extended by law such two-day period, or (3) is physically unable to meet as a result of an armed attack upon the United States. Such two-day period shall be extended for not more than an additional two days if the President determines and certifies to the Congress in writing that unavoidable military necessity respecting the safety of United States Armed Forces requires the continued use of such armed forces in the course of bringing about a prompt removal of such forces.

(c) CONCURRENT RESOLUTION FOR REMOVAL BY PRESIDENT OF UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES

Notwithstanding subsection (b), at any time that United States Armed Forces are engaged in hostilities outside the territory of the United States, its possessions and territories without a declaration of war or specific statutory authorization, such forces shall be removed by the President if the Congress so directs by concurrent resolution.

CHAPTER II. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

❑ 10 US CODE § 201 - SEAL OF OFFICE

The Director shall cause a seal of office to be made for the Central Intelligence Agency, of such design as the Founders shall approve.

❑ 10 US CODE § 202 - INTELLIGENCE OPERATIONS AND COVER ENHANCEMENT AUTHORITY

(a) DEFINITIONS In this section—

(1) the term “designated employee” means an employee designated by the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency under subsection (b); and

(b) IN GENERAL

(1) AUTHORITY Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Director of the Central Intelligence Agency may exercise the authorities under this section in order to—

(a) protect from unauthorized disclosure—

- (i) intelligence operations;
- (ii) the identities of undercover intelligence officers;
- (iii) intelligence sources and methods; or
- (iv) intelligence cover mechanisms; or

(b) meet the special requirements of work related to collection of foreign intelligence or other authorized activities of the Agency.

(2) DESIGNATION OF EMPLOYEES

The Director of the Central Intelligence Agency may designate any employee of the Agency who is under nonofficial cover to be an employee to whom this section applies. Such designation may be made with respect to any or all authorities exercised under this section.

(3) OPERATIONS

The Central Intelligence Agency may not conduct official operations on United States soil.

CHAPTER III. NATIONAL SECURITY AGENCY

❑ 10 US CODE § 301 - DIRECTOR OF THE AGENCY

(a)

- (1) There is a Director of the National Security Agency.
- (2) The Director of the National Security Agency shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate.
- (3) The Director of the National Security Agency shall be the head of the National Security Agency and shall discharge such functions and duties as are provided by this chapter or otherwise by law or executive order.

❑ 10 US CODE § 302 - ENHANCEMENT OF SECURITY AUTHORITIES

(a) LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITY

- (1) The Director of the National Security Agency may authorize agency personnel within the United States to perform the same functions as officers and agents of the Department of Homeland Security with the powers set forth except that such personnel shall perform such functions and exercise such powers—
- (2) Agency personnel authorized by the Director may transport an individual apprehended under the authority of this section from the premises at which the individual was apprehended for the purpose of transferring such individual to the custody of law enforcement officials.

TITLE XI. VOTING AND ELECTIONS

CHAPTER I. VOTING AND ELECTIONS; VOTING RIGHTS; GENERALLY

❑ 11 US CODE § 101 - VOTING RIGHTS

Everyone who is a citizen has the right to vote. The right of which they can vote will be determined by the Founder Election Commission, which is comprised of the Founders and other members they choose to help run elections. Elections shall be run and set, as bound by the Founder Election Commission, and set by the Constitution.

❑ 11 US CODE § 102 - FEDERAL PRISON

Any citizen who is prosecuted and made guilty in the court of law as it relates to anything regarding Title VII and put in Federal Prison, shall not be able to vote for the duration of that FP term.

TITLE XII. AMENDMENTS TO THE CODE

CHAPTER I. AMENDING OR REPEALING SECTIONS OF THE CODE

❑ 12 US CODE § 101 - AMENDMENTS

If congress feels the need to repeal any statute of this code, the old statute shall be deleted, yet the numbering order shall not change. If Congress feels the need to add another statute, it shall be added on the end of the list in which it corresponds with.

Whenever a new statute is added or removed, the head of the archives is to be notified and a new document reflecting the changes shall be issued. Grammatical and format issues may be rendered when necessary by the authors of this document.

Title IX, XI, and XII may not be repealed or changed without approval from the Founders.

❑ 12 US CODE § 102 - CURRENT DEPARTMENTS/AGENCIES

From the time of the passage of this bill, all current departments and agencies, including the positions inside them, will continue to be in place unless changed by congress or found illegal or unconstitutional in accordance with this legislation.
